

READ THIS AND CHANGE YOUR LIFE!

If you're a male and you enjoy singing (if only in the shower), then please read on.

The Rame Peninsula Male Voice Choir, are having a recruitment drive and YOU are just the person that we're looking for!

We've been losing members steadily to Old Father Time and we're now keen to get some new voices to strengthen the choir and maintain a strong tradition, which for generations has been part of Cornish life.

Why not think about taking up choral singing as a hobby, and come along to a practice one evening to see what it's all about? It's suddenly getting a "cool" image, after all the TV publicity and you don't need to have a wonderful voice, the ability to read music. or even be Cornish. All that you require is a reasonable ability to pitch a note and a willingness to commit yourself to regular attendances for practices and concerts.

The rewards are many and come from the "feel good" factor that singing brings - a definite physical buzz and the sheer enjoyment of performing on stage with a great bunch of guys, who will quickly become friends. The choir is truly a "Band of Brothers." !!

Choir practice is on Wednesday evenings 7.30pm, at the Kingsand Community Hall. You'll always be made very welcome, but on Weds March 18th, we're having a "Come and Sing" evening, when you can meet the lads and even get a free cup of tea and a biscuit!

Grab an opportunity and you'll never regret a might have been!
